that He will destroy the enemies who threaten Israel so that they would live securely in Tziyon.

It is at this point that our haftara begins with the opening words "Roni v'simchi Bat Tziyon", "Rejoice O daughter of Tziyon", because G-d now guarantees that He will dwell amidst the people in the holy city. It is at this point that Zecharya describes the 'satan', the condemner of Israel, as being silenced by G-d from criticizing the nation, for they are but an "ud mutzal mei'eish", a firebrand just saved from the conflagration. Our haftara continues with a most glorious vision of the Messianic era that would follow and closes, of course, with the vision of the Menorah.

But following the haftara selection, the prophet continues to describe the future success and glory awaiting the Jewish nation when they return. He describes the construction of the second Beit HaMikdash, the elevation and installation of Yehoshua as the Kohen Gadol and even the involvement of all the people - young and old, both in Judea and in Babylonia - in the rebuilding of the Temple. He describes Jerusalem once again filled with the elderly sitting in the plazas and children playing in the streets.

But none of these promises came true.

Because Jews never left the galut to return home.

Yet, what touches me to the core is that these words proclaimed over 2000 years ago, speak directly to us!! The Jews now are returning! And Jerusalem has expanded beyond its walls! Hashem has protected us from our enemies, and children play in the streets while the aged sit in the plazas! And, perhaps most moving, I know that G-d must be silencing the 'satan' and telling him that he not dare condemn a people that are the firebrands barely saved from the conflagration, the death camps, the crematoria.

Words spoken so long ago speak to us today. It's all there.

All we have to do is read them.
